Nobody suggested the figure. I did talk to some people after I had send this down to be drafted and from the industry and also from power and they thought that it might be ok at 20%

SENATOR MILLS: So there really isn't any real basis for 20% then, is that correct?

SENATOR SIMPSON: No, it is just that I had that figure in my head.

SENATOR MILLS: OK, then there is not an association of mobile park owners that recommended 20% to you or anything like that?

SENATOR SIMPSON: No.

SENATOR MILLS: Thank you. I oppose the amendment.

PRESIDENT: Senator Murphy.

SENATOR MURPHY: A question of Senator Simpson. Senator your amendment relates I believe to electric heating as opposed to simply electric service for nominal household use, right?

SENATOR SIMPSON: Yes.

SENATOR MURPHY: Do you know what the additional cost would be for the heating capacity in a circuit as opposed to the normal, lets say 220 service that is installed?

SENATOR SIMPSON: Of course it would make a difference as to where you had it installed. The cost would be substantial and that is all that I could say and I don't think that anybody could come with a figure. You know, today would be one figure and tomorrow it would be another.

SENATOR MURPHY: OK, thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Koch.

SENATOR KOCH: Mr. President, members of the body, the further we go with this discussion, I guess the greater concern I have as to whether or not we need the bill. It appears to me that we are talking about mobile homes and whatever name you want to give them Plazas or Courts, that the zoning jurisdiction of counties or cities would be able to take care of most of the problems that we are talking about here. Why do we have to bring in a state agency for the purposing of licensing and doing other things. The zoning jurisdictions presently in cities and counties appears to me would handle all of these questions and here we are now, you would pay a fee to the state department of public health for these kinds of things. Senator Simpson, can you answer that for me?

SENATOR SIMPSON: I would say first of all that there are a lot of these parks that are not within the municipalities.

SENATOR KOCH: They have got to be within counties though.

SENATOR SIMPSON: Alright, they are in the county but that doesn't mean that they are necessarily checked. The county doesn't necessarily have to have a rule and regulation that covers these and maybe they don't at all. I think that we
